King of Outdoor Sport Prepares for Triumphant Entry

Play Ball! Evenings are being spent now in hunting up the old and discarded gloves, bats, and similar equipment necessary to America's national outdoor sport. A noticeable stir and quickening of the step is being displayed by young and old and whispered and vociferous consultations are the order of the day.

No need to ask the reason. It is the same each year as the springtime rolls around. Springtime and baseball. Hand in hand they go. As inseparable as night and darkness and with their each succeeding coming, create a something akin to chaos in the hearts and minds of the younger generations.

Not only the young, for Americas national sport has among its ranks of ardent enthusiasts and supporters, the older men as well as the child. But, perhaps it is not so evident there as may be seen in the eager smiles and exultant laughter that is brought out more plainly in the growing manhood after the long months of expectant waiting.

Soon, on Maui will be heard the crack of ball on bat, the thud on the fielders glove, and the sharp intake of breath that is held painfully until the runner is safe or out at the key-stone station.

The Valley Isle has for years past been noted for the excellent brand of sportsmanship that has been displayed in athletic meets of any nature. It is to be hoped that this spirit shall continue to prevail among her sporting circles. With the coming season drawing closer, it is to be urged that the associations and teams and clubs that will participate, continue on as they have heretofore, in the interest of good clean and manly sport.

In such way and that way only can the real support and whole hearted interest be drawn from the fans, without which, its success would be endangered.

Junior Season Soon

Though the actual date for the opening of activities in the junior baseball league has not been set, it is reported that it shall be but a matter of one or two weeks. Practice among several of the teams has already commenced and each evening the Walluku field is sported with the enthusiastic aspirants for the junior championship. Maui High School, the Sports, and St Anthony are hard at it, in preparation of the coming season. Speculation is becoming rife as to possible winners and reports from many training camps intimate that several dark horses are to be sprung at the official opening.

Meeting on 20th

Captains or team representatives from the various clubs that will enter the league must be present at the meeting on Monday, February 20th, and should have a full list of players picked for their respective team.

Definite rules and schedule will be adopted at the meeting and the committee desires that all players possible be there and in that way avoid any future entanglements. Players must be bona fide junior players. They must have no time played on a senior league on Maui without the sanction of the junior baseball committee.

Five teams are assured by the present plans and the committee announces that there is room for still more. They must enter, however, at the coming meeting or sooner.

Teams in the outlying districts are rapidly forming and by the first of March the committee hopes to see many of the junior leagues in action.

Sports Brevities

(Do'ins O'the World)

National and American league baseball seasons will open on Wednesday, April 12. Each team is scheduled to play 154 games and will wind up on October 1.

Bill Tate, a Chicago negro heavyweight won on a foul over Harry Wills in the first round of a scheduled ten round bout at Portland, Ore., recently.

Mike Sweeney, former inter-collegiate champion established a record in basketball recently. Playing on the Niagara Falls quintet he shot fourteen consecutive fouls without a miss. In two games, Sweeney has established a record of twenty three consecutive goals from free throw.

John Weissmuller, Illinois Athletic Club star, established a new world record mark in the 220 yard free style swim event. Time 2:19.35 seconds, eclipsing 1.5 of a second of the previous record held by Ted Cann of the Detroit Athletic Club.

The French covered court tennis championship was won by Erik Tenner of Denmark. He defeated Max Decugis, seven times the French champion since 1904. The score was 19-8, 2-6, 6-2, and 6-4.

ANSWERS TO TUESDAY'S QUERIES

Bescher of Cincinnati, holds the National League record (since 1900) for stolen bases, with eighty to his credit in 1911.

Corbett's fighting weight was around 190. Jeffries' was about 220.

J. S. Johnson, with fifteen amateur and five professional records to his credit, holds the greatest number of world's ice-skating records.

If an eligible player receives a forward pass behind his opponents' goal line the touchdown is legal.

The rules of poker call for hands of five cards each. A player, therefore, who has only four cards (even if these are four of a kind) has a dead hand and cannot play in the pot.

Tuesday's results—Alerts 23, Kahului 5; Wacs 47, Sports 10.

The Alumni quintet continues on to an undefeated championship and established their ninth straight victory Tuesday night by defeating the Harbor Town boys 23-5. At the start of the game and shortly afterwards it looked ripe for a Kahului victory. Alerts were the first to score, Kahoo-hanohano throwing a goal from the field. The lead did not last for long however, for Larsen retaliated and a moment later Kahului swung into the lead by converting a free throw into goal. The first period finally ended at the score of 4-3 favoring St. Anthony. Fast playing was the feature of the following quarter and had the Kahului quintet been able to find the basket in their many attempted throws, the final score would have been materially changed. Kahului's teamwork was above criticism but inaccuracy to net the ball brought defeat. The half ended with the Alerts continuing in the lead, 8-5.

Kahului Held Scoreless

For the remaining two quarters of play the Alerts held the Harbor team scoreless and added a total of 15 additional points to their score.

Hangai failed to play his usually aggressive game and scored but seven points. Larsen, too, of the Kahului team failed to rouse the spectators by any brilliant performances. It was an off day for these two cup race stars.

Sports Submerged

The Wacs played up to the top notch of their ability on Tuesday and swamped the Midgets of the senior league by the overwhelming score of 47-10.

Play went along fairly smooth during both quarters of the first half, the Wacs scoring 16 against their opponents 4. Rodrigues did not get under way until after the 10 minute rest period was up but when he did he came in with a bang. Thirty one points were scored in the last 16 minutes of play, the majority of which were thrown by the Wacs captain. The Sports brought applause from the gallery when with but a scant minute to play they dropped the ball twice through the basket in rapid succession. The Wacs retaliated by scoring a field goal as the final whistle blew the ball being in mid air as the game came to a close.

Cup Race Uncertain

Rodrigues fast work in the last half of the game again placed him in the lead in the individual cup race. Scoring a total of 36 points during the contest he overtook the lead held by Sanders, the Morman's captain and now has a total of 129. However, he has played in nine games whereas the Saints star has appeared in but seven of the eight games the Saints have played. Sanders hold second position at 111, Hangai third with 88, Rego fourth 86 and Larsen fifth with a total of 84. At each contest it becomes more apparent that the real race will develop between Rodrigues and Sanders.

Tonight's Games

One of the remaining games of considerable interest to the fans and of material import to the finishing position to be occupied in the league standings will be played tonight, Maui High meets the Saints in the first set of the evening and should the Saints win it would put the Hi boys out of the running for first place for which they still have a chance.

Two games between practically evenly matched teams are scheduled to be played in the armory tonight and should be of great interest to the fans. Kam III meets Company A, National Guardsmen in the first game following which Lahainaluna will play the Town Team.
